The Richmond Pantagraph says a good joke is told on one of our produce buyers. Some time ago his house caught fire and he started up town on a run, to give the alarm. He got near the middle of town and started back home on a run calling to his brother to give the alarm as he was such a liar they wouldn't believe him.

John Embry, as agent for Nelson Morris, bought this week the following cattle for export: Joe L. Brown, 207; W. M. Robb, 53; H. R. Brown, 100; G. M. Proctor, 48; T. G. Barrow, about 50; Thornt and Thad Hampton, 48. These cattle will weigh about 1500 pounds each and were sold at 4½ cents, thus making about forty thousand dollars to that portion of the country.

Roger Gannon bought in the eastern portion of the county, a lot of 1100-lb. feeders at 3½ cts.—Winchester Democrat.

An Irishman and a Frenchman were disputing over the nationality of a friend of theirs: "I say," said the Frenchman, "that if he was born in France he is a Frenchman." "Begorra," said Pat, "If a cat should have kittens in an oven would you call them biscuits?"
